3. On the 21st of June 2023, the Defendants herein filed a joint written statement of defense. This matter was set for mediation and on the 31st of June 2023, the parties asked for time to negotiate on their own as they intended to settle amicably.

On the 7th of August 2023 when the parties appeared before me, Mr. John Laswai, learned advocate appeared for the Plaintiff while Mr. Daudi Nkirya, learned advocate, appeared for the Defendants. On the material date, this Court was informed that, the Parties have exercised their wisdom and have successfully and amicably settled their dispute. They informed this Court that, a Deed of Settlement was also filed in this Court and prayed that, the same be recorded as forming the Judgment and Decree of the Court.

I have taken time to examine the Deed of Settlement filed in this Court on this 07th day of August 2023. I am satisfied that the same meets the lawfulness requirements of an enforceable Deed and falls within Order XXIII rule 3 of the Civil Procedure Code, Cap.33 R.E 2019. In view of that fact, the suit herein has been adjusted wholly by the Deed of Settlement filed in this Court on this 07th day of August 2023.

With that in mind, this Court does hereby proceed and records the Deed of Settlement and marks this suit as having been "settled" at the consent of the parties, and, on the terms set out in parties' duly signed Deed of Settlement, which Deed of Settlement shall constitute "the Decree of this Court".

It is so ordered.
