(3) An application for leave shall be substantially in the Form A set out in the First Schedule to these Rules and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(4) An application for leave shall be heard and determined within fourteen days from the date the application was made.

(5) The Judge may, in granting leave, impose terms as to costs and giving security as he thinks fit including cash deposit, bank guarantee or insurance bond from a reputable institution.

(6) The grant of leave under this rule shall apply for an order of prohibition or an order of certiorari, if the Judge so directs, operate as a stay of the proceeding in question until the determination of the application, or ordered otherwise:

Provided that where the circumstances require, the Judge may direct that the application be served for hearing inter-partes before the grant of such leave.

Time limit

6. The leave to apply for judicial review shall not be granted unless the application for leave is made within six months after the date of the proceedings, act or omission to which the application for leave relates.

Hearing

7.-(1) The Judge may grant leave to file an application for judicial review without hearing the applicant.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (1), where it appears that a hearing is desirable in the interests of justice, the Judge may hear the applicant.

(3) The Judge may, on the hearing of the application for leave, allow-

(a) the statement to be amended; and

(b) further affidavits to be used if they deal with new matters arising out of the affidavits of any other party to the application.

(4) Where the applicant intends to amend his statement or use further affidavits, he shall give a notice of his intention to amend the statement accompanied by the proposed amendments to the statement.

(5) The Judge may, depending on the circumstances of the matter before him, grant interim relief as appears just.

Application for judicial review

8.-(1) Where a leave to apply for judicial review has been granted, the application shall be made-

- (a) by way of chamber summons supported by an affidavit and the statement in respect of which leave was granted; and
 - (b) within fourteen days from the day of the leave was granted.
- (2) The chamber summons shall be in the format subscribed in Form B set out in the First Schedule to these Rules and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(3) The affidavit shall be made by the applicant in person or by an authorized officer of the applicant.

(4) Where the applicant is unable to make the affidavit, the affidavit may be made by another person on the applicant's behalf, and it shall state why the applicant is unable to make the affidavit.

(5) The Court shall upon issuing the chamber summons, fix a hearing date.

Service of appli-

9.-(1) The applicant shall within seven days after filing the application, serve a copy of the application on the respondent together with supporting documents specified under rule 8.

(2) The respondent shall on demand be served with copies of affidavit accompanying the application for leave.

(3) The applicant shall within three days before the hearing date file in court an affidavit stating-

- (a) the names, address of the place and date of service on all persons who have been served with chamber summons; and
- (b) the fact and reasons why the service has not been effected to a person who ought to be served under the provision of the rule.

Adjournment of the hearing for supply of

10. Where the Court is of the opinion that a person who ought to have been served with a copy of application, has not been served, it may adjourn the hearing, to allow that person to be served.

Service of documents to parties
